Memories . . . like the corners of my mind.

Misty water color memories of "The Way We Were."

Scattered pictures of the smiles

Smiles we gave to one another

for "The Way We Were"

Can it be
that it was all
so simple then . . .

Scheduling

Or has time rewritten
every line?

Memories may be beautiful and yet . . .

What's too painful

Ballard Students Enter Fair

By Tim Murray

Ballard 'A' students will be among those attending Middle Georgia's annual Social Science Fair to be held at Georgia College in Milledgeville on Feb. 20 and 21.

"The main purpose of this year's fair," stated Mr. Mosley, Ballard 'A's advisor to the fair, "is to interest students in the bicentennial."

About 34 students from Ballard 'A' have enteres the contest and are beginning projects which range from making revolutionary dresses to rewriting the Constitution with a quill.

The students from Ballard 'A' who have entered are Monique Watson, Wanda Culler, Steve Darrisaw, Phyllis Wilson, Mitch Dugger, Lori Johnson, John Woods, Suzanne Anderson, Ricky Carpenter, and Bridget Teasley.

Also David Ogden, Tommy Spell, Margaret Rutland, Robert Shepard, Kathy Walden, Elizabeth Parish, David Floyd, Lavornia Franklin, Wally Lucas, David Boyd, Tim Finson, Keith McCord, Theresa Brown, Brenda Coleman, George Smith, Gerri Harrell, Kim Reynolds, David Williams, Greg Smith, Kenneth Drawhorn, Lynn Meeks, Tommy Kersery, Audrey Wilson, Jessie Edwards, and Cheri Long.

ferson and all those patriots who dedicated their lives to freedom. It is the courage and dedication of these men who fought in the American Revolution that we honor in our Bicentennial.

While commercialism is taking part of the pleasure out of the Bicentennial for some, millions of Americans are feeling the "Spirit of '76." The television networks are doing much to capture the Bicentennial spirit. The NBC Today Show is "counting down" to the Bicentennial by doing a special segment each Friday, going from the fiftieth state to enter the Union, Hawaii, to the first state, Deleware. CBS has a one minute show each evening, Two Hundred Years Ago Today, more commonly known as the Bicentennial Minutes, providing information on important events of the Revolution.

By Phillip Elrod

Mr. McClendis and Mr. Vinson are teaching Ballard A students about our American free enterprise system through the Action Club.

The Action Club teaches basic operations of the free enterprise system by allowing students in the course to form a miniature company each quarter.

Each company manufactures products to be sold door to door in the community and to students in the school. Each student in the course becomes a stockholder in the company.

Products such as knife racks and tic tac toe boards are being made to sell during the winter quarter.

Each company elects a board of directors and sells company stock. They then elect company officers which are the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and vice-president of manufacturing and decides what products are to be made and sold.

The products are designed and methods by which to make them are set up. The price of the product and exactly who will but them are determined and the materials are purchased for production.

The manufacturing then begins with quality control to assure the products are well made. After they are finished, the products are sold, the profits are reported and split among the company members.

Mr Vinson stated, "It is felt that through Ballard A enterprise, students have gained a better insight of the free enterprise system along with the American economical system."
